WEDNESDAY, NOV. 14.

By resolution adopted at the Democratic State Convention, held June, 1900, the Democrats of Adair county are requested to meet at their respective voting precincts Monday, November 19, at 1 o'clock p. m. and select a Chairman for their district. On Monday following the Chairmen named are to meet in the county seat and select a Chairman for the County Committee for a term of four years. This is important and should not be neglected.

C. S. HARRIS, C. C. C.

R. G. Dun, the head of the great mercantile agency is dead.

Proud "Old Kentucky" thy name shall be restored to thee.

Hon. John D. White will probably not contest for the Governorship.

The "Rough Rider," started in Indiana by Charley Finley has suspended publication.

Mr. Bryan congratulated President McKinley upon his re-election, and Mr. McKinley responded appropriately.

Since the election pork, beef and mutton have advanced 1 cent on the pound, an annual income to Chicago packers of $39,000,000. The consumer pays it.

There is a great deal of difference between a born gentleman and one made out of "truck and turnover." Hon. John W. Yerkes takes his defeat philosophically.

The Evening Post says that Judge Pratt will now make an effort to get the office of Attorney General from Breckinridge. By the time his application goes through the courts Breckinridge's time will have expired.

Four thousand people met Gov. Beckham upon his arrival at Owensboro last Saturday night and there was great rejoicing. In this number there was one individual happier than the rest. In a few weeks she will occupy the Executive mansion.

The Democrats of the Eleventh District worked day and night for the success of the ticket. They labored for principle, paying their own expenses. She has long been treated like a stepbrother ever since it was created, and we presume the same tender affection will be kept up.

There is some talk of a meeting in New York to reorganize the National Democratic party. Ex-Senator John G. Carlisle is one of the prime movers. He says "All are equally interested in the success of the party on a sound and patriotic platform of principles, and therefore all factions should be consulted, both as to the plan of organization and the policies to be announced." Ex-Gov. Bob Taylor, of Tennessee, says the party needs no reorganization; that it stands today as organized by Jefferson and Jackson.

Mr. Beckham is elected but as usual the Republican leaders cry out fraud. His majority was obtained without the use of money, intimidation or any unfair means. It is a vote of the unpurchasable Democracy of this State expressed in one of the fairest and most orderly elections ever held in this Commonwealth. Our party did not get a cent from outside sources while the Republicans poured into their corruption fund thousands of dollars to corrupt the voter and purchase power, and failing in this their last and common resort is the cry of fraud. They may succeed in making some outside people believe that they have been wronged but no one in the State can credit their statements. This time they did not have the State soldiers; they did not have the active support of certain corporate interests but were left to make their fight strictly with their corruption fund. They covet power and are willing to use any means that will land them winners. In the conflicts of the past their acts have been a menace to the peace and dignity of the State; their brief rule has degraded the name of Kentucky and their avowed intentions and endorsement of W. S. Taylor aroused the Democrats to that point that made them invincible. It is now settled and settled in that manner that guarantees to Kentucky and the rest of the world that law and order shall prevail. We do not mean to say that individual Republicans, the rank and file of the party, endorse the crimes committed at Frankfort last winter by their leaders, for that would be too broad and unjust, but it is the leaders, the office-seekers, who resort to ways that are wicked and deeds that are dark. The truth is that both parties are Kentuckians and good and bad exist in both and while this is true there is not a doubt but the majority of both parties want fair and honest methods prevail and therefore ought to accept the result without a murmur.

It is not our intention to criticize the result of the recent election or to explain why the vote was so overwhelmingly for the Republican candidates for the simple reason that the readers of the News are as well acquainted with the conditions and the results and are equally able to diagnose the case as we, but it is certain that the returns show a hearty endorsement of McKinley; that the majority of the people believe in Imperialism, Militarism, Gold Standard and Trusts of every description and believing thus it is the imperative duty of the victorious party to lay it on to the extent of the demands. We did not expect such a decided and positive approval of McKinley and his party but it is not the first time that our fondest hopes have been smashed and our greatest political desires gone down in defeat. The victory belongs to the Republicans; the defeat is our political heritage. Twice our gallant leader and his party have met their Waterloo but that does not indicate that they will be the vanquished in future political contests. Truth and justice will finally prevail and we look forward to the time when the Democratic party will rise above the bickerings in its own ranks and assert its power and influence over national affairs. The two defeats under the leadership of Mr. Bryan should not discourage but should awaken an interest and arouse an enthusiasm that will bring victory in the next contest. That Mr. Bryan is right there is no doubt and being right we should never get discouraged but renew our faith and determination.

Up to Monday night there was no change in Mr. Beckham's plurality, it remaining a little over 8,000. There are a few counties not yet reported officially, but there is not likely to be but little change from the above figures. The official count shows a small net loss to Mr. Beckham, making the Republican claim, that the election boards would steal the vote, sound ridiculous.

The national election was a sweeping victory for the Republicans. The Senate will have majority of 12 and the House of Representatives will begin its next session with 200 Republicans and 152 Democrats; 5 fusionists. Two Republican Congressmen are elected in Kentucky—Irwin in the Fifth and Boring in the Eleventh.

THE VOTE OF ADAIR COUNTY.

Last week we published the vote of Adair county, by precincts. In the official count Mr. Yerkes gained one vote. The following is the number of votes each man received and the majorities:

McKINLEY.....	1,718.
BRYAN.....	1,452.
MAJORITY.....	261.
YERKES.....	1,719.
BECKHAM.....	1,482.
MAJORITY.....	287.
BORING.....	1,707.
SMITH.....	1,458.
MAJORITY.....	244.

Mr. Bryan, hearing of a proposition to send him to the United States Senate, called State Committeeman James C. Dahman, who is a close personal friend, and gave him this instruction: "If you hear any of my friends talking about putting me into the U. S. Senate in case we carry the Legislature, you may say officially that under no circumstances would I accept the office, even were it tendered me. I made my fight for the Presidency and lost. I am not going to take other men's positions from them."

Some of our Republican friends thought we were a little premature last week in bringing out our rooster, but we felt sure of Mr. Beckham's election and could not hold him back. In fact, the rooster had been looking with much anxiety for crowing time, and when the election news commenced pouring in the temptation was so great that no power upon earth could have kept him from crowing.

Mr. R. D. Hill, United States District Attorney for Kentucky, says that the election, just over, was the fairest ever held in the State. A few complaints have reached his office with no proof to back them. He attributes the complaints to the ignorance of the election law.

The interior Journal has lost none of its brightness under the full control of Mr. E. C. Walton. He is an "all round" newspaper man—a smooth, forcible writer—being his principal forte. The paper is popular with all Democrats who respect it for its frankness.

A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little Son's Life. Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known village blacksmith at Grahamsville, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so bad have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by M. Cravens.
